

NO GOtv Price Increase – Just More Entertainment

1 March 2017

A month after adding more value to GOtv by bring the rest of the FA Cup season to GOtv Plus, GOtv will once again delight its customers by announcing that there will be no annual price increases across all its packages this coming April!

Every year on 1 April, GOtv announces its annual subscription price increase however, GOgetters in Ghana, Uganda, Kenya, Zambia will now get to experience the best television entertainment without the worry of a price increase to their subscriptions next month.

Despite the tough economic climate, GOtv maintained its commitment to freezing its annual subscription prices for 2017, barring any further external economic shocks.

Last year, GOtv announced its first ever price-freeze which was welcomed by customers as it helped alleviate the financial pressures faced by customers because of inflation increases. Instead, the company made the decision to absorb all the currency devaluations and additional costs for subscribers.

This March, GOtgetters on GOtv Plus can catch the Emirates FA Cup as it heats up on Select 2 as well as plenty entertainment like the latest and sizzling telenovelas on Telemundo, the 2017 award season glitz and glam coverage on E! Entertainment, riveting soapies on Zee World and more local and international sports coverage on the SuperSport channels available on the DTT platform.

GOtv offers all this exciting content on a range of bouquets, each with a unique selection of family entertainment options which are available at varying pricing points to allow subscribers flexibility in price and choice without compromising quality or variety.

For more information of the bouquets and upcoming programming, please visit www.gotvafrica.com.

END

